Sunday Battle

Takashi, say something to them!
Those 5th graders... Even though they got here later...!
This park is our spot! You 4th graders go home!
And weren't they in your grade last year as well!?
You're older aren't you!?
For an elementary schooler, the years are an absolute hierarchy!
D-don't be crazy! There's no way I can go against someone who's higher level than me!
Cards huh. Let's do it! No need to hold back either!
That voice... Yoshiharu!
How about we decide the rights to the park with a card game then?
Why are you so scared, Takashi? Well, I guess we were in the same class last year
Duel!
And so the elementary schooler boys live on, Imitating the manga they read.
